In Loving Memory of

Ava Lynn Johnson

(January 5, 2008 - January 5, 2008)

"Born into heaven because she was too beautiful for earth"

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Ava Lynn Johnson who was born in York PA on January 5, 2008 and passed away on January 5, 2008. You will live forever in our memories and hearts. Our baby girl, our lives will never be the same with out you.

Happy Birthday Baby Girl!

A Special Birthday

*Please God, make them remember that Today is a special birthday.
Make them understand that.
The memories don't go away.*

*Bless them with ears to hear and hearts that care.
Enable them to listen while I share.
Shelter them that they may never know my pain.
Help them to help me know that my child's life was not in vain.*

*Help them to remember Lord, that I wish
That my child was here
So we could still celebrate.*

To understand that I still Feel the nearness of my child.
To see beyond my smile and the Words. "I'm okay."
Please God, just let one remember today,
Is a special birthday!

Forgotten? - Never

Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile.
Little do they know the heartaches
That our smiles hide all the while.

Beautiful memories are wonderful things.
That last till the longest day.
They never wear out.
They never get lost and can never be given away.

To some you may forgotten.
To others apart of the past.
But to those who loved and lost you...
Your memory will always last.

Ava's 1st Birthday in heaven

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Daughters arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Happy
Birthday

Your first Birthday in Heaven

To My Family

Time has taken me from you,
Although not very far.
I'll be watching through the sunshine
And through the brightest star.

I'll be watching all of you,
From the heavens up above.
So take good care of each other

And carry all my love.

If you're ever wondering
If I'm there, here's where you can start.
Take a look inside yourself
Deep within your heart.

I'll always be your baby,
Your child (grandchild, and sister), your best friend.
So anytime you need me,
Close your eyes I'm back again.
Love, Ava

Someone Is Missing

Someone is missing from our dinner table, from our bedroom and our home.

Someone is missing from holiday celebrations, family vacations and everywhere in between.

Someone is missing from our lives,
Our littlest one is gone.

She will not have birthday parties, graduations, or celebrations.
We will miss her throughout eternity and our family will never be complete.
Someone is missing, yet we go on.
Our lives are touched by her.
Changed forever by her brief existence.
Her memory we keep alive.
She lives only in our hearts and minds,
We were blessed by her short life.
Our love for her forever strong.
Even though...someone will always be...MISSING.

I Am A Mother

I've loved my child right from the start,
A feeling that's filled my entire heart.
I went through the labor and suffered the pain,
For many long hours with nothing to gain.

I've spent sleepless nights being awake,
Though it's been a while my arms they still ache.
I've sat and I've wondered of how she would grow,
The love of my family that she'd come to know.

The sound of her voice as she learns to talk,
Watching her steps as she tries to walk.
I have a child that I really love so,
I am her mother yet nobody knows.

I've spent all these months feeling her grow,
I've lived through it all and have nothing to show.
I don't get invited to chat with young mothers,
Because I don't have a baby like all of the others.

I've got some stretch marks that I'd like to hide,
but I don't have a pram with a baby inside.
The people I've known for so many years,
Avoid me now, which adds to my tears.

I don't know how long I'll be feeling like this,
But one thing I know, my baby I miss.
When Mother's day comes it will be very hard,
I won't have any flowers, not even a card.

And just because she's not here with me,
I still have a daughter I wish I could see.

But one thing I know and this is for sure,
I'll be her mother forevermore!

I Love You

Can You See The Change in Me?

It may not be obvious to you.

I participate in family activities.

I attend family reunions.

I help plan holiday meals.

You tell me you're glad to see that I don't cry anymore.

But I do cry.

When everyone has gone - when it is safe - the tears fall.
I cry in privacy so my family won't worry.
I cry until I am exhausted and can finally sleep.
You tell me you admire my strength and my positive attitude.
But I'm not strong.
I feel that I have lost control, and I panic when I think about tomorrow
... next week
... next month
... next year.
I go about the routine of my job.
I complete my assigned tasks.
I drink coffee and smile.
You tell me that you're glad to see I'm "over " the death of my loved one.
But I'm not "over " it.
If I get over it, I will be the same as before my loved one died.
I will never be the same.
At times I think I am beginning to heal, but the pain of losing someone I loved so much has left a permanent scar on my heart.
I visit my neighbours.
You tell me you're so glad to see I'm holding up so well.
But I'm not holding up well.
Sometimes I want to lock my door and hide from the world.
I spend time with friends.
I appear calm and collected.
I smile when appropriate.
You tell me it's good to see me back to my "old self ".
But I will never be back to my "old self ".

Death and grief have touched my life, and I am forever changed.

I Believe in Angels

I'm going to tell you something
I hope you'll never have to know.
I'll tell you how a heart can break
And tears can constant flow.
I lost my baby girl you see,

An angel in my eyes
God chose to take her hand one day
And led her to the skies.
But please do not forget my child
She was a person too
And forever she will live
Inside of me and you.
So, please don't ever tell me
That time will heal my pain
Because not even time
Can bring her back again.
Just tell me she is happy
In that land way up above
She's snuggled in an angels wings
All wrapped in Mommy's love.

Don't cry for me Daddy,

I'm right here.
Although you can't see me
I see your tears.
I visit you often,
I go to work with you each day,
And when it's time for you to close your eyes ,
On your pillow is where I lay.
I hold your hand &
stroke your hair,
And whisper in your ear.
If you're sad today Daddy,
Remember, I am here.
God took me home.
This we know is true.
But you'll always be My Daddy
Even though I'm not with you.
We will never be apart,
For everytime you think of me,
Please know I'm in your Heart.....

WITH OUT ME

When tomorrow starts with out me

And I'm not there to see

If the sun should rise and find

Your eyes filled with tears for me

I wish that you wouldn't cry

The way you did today

While thinking of the many things

That we did not get to say

I now how much you loved me

As much as I loved you

And each time you think of me

I now that you miss me too

But when tomorrow starts with out me

Please try to understand

That an angel came and called my name

And took me by the hand, and said that

My place was ready in heaven far above

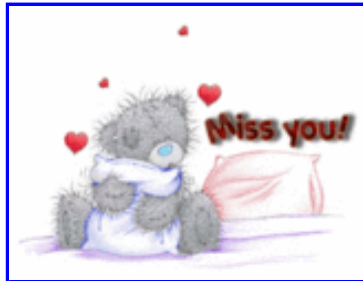

And that I have to leave those I dearly love

So when tomorrow starts with out me

Don't think we are far apart

For every time you think of me

I will always be in your heart.

1. I wish my baby hadn't died. I wish I had her back.
2. I wish you wouldn't be afraid to speak my baby's name. My baby lived and was very important to me. I need to hear that she was important to you also.
3. If I cry and get emotional when you talk about my baby, I wish you knew it isn't because you have hurt me. My baby's death is the cause of my tears. You have talked about my baby, and you have allowed me to share my grief. I thank you for both.
4. Being a bereaved parent is not contagious, so I wish you wouldn't shy away from me. I need you now more than ever.
5. I need diversions, so I do want to hear about you; but I also want you to hear about me. I might be sad and I might cry, but I wish you would let me talk about my baby, my favorite topic of the day.
6. I know you think of and pray for me often. I also know that my baby's death pains you too. I wish you would let me know those things through a phone call, a card or note, or a real big hug.

7. I wish you wouldn't expect my grief to be over in six months. These first months are traumatic for me, but I wish you could understand that my grief will never be over. I will suffer the death of my baby until the day I die.
8. I am working very hard on my recovery, but I wish you could understand that I will never fully recover. I will always miss my baby, and I will always grieve that he is dead.
9. I wish you wouldn't expect me "not to think about it" or to "be happy." Neither will happen for a very long time, so don't frustrate yourself.
10. I don't want to have a "pity party," but I do wish you would let me grieve. I must hurt before I can heal.
11. I wish you understood how my life has shattered. I know it is miserable for you to be around me when I am feeling miserable. Please be as patient with me as I am with you.
12. When I say, "I'm doing okay, " I wish you could understand that I don't "feel" okay and that I struggle daily.
13. I wish you knew that all of the grief reactions I'm having are very normal. Depression, anger, frustration, hopelessness, and overwhelming sadness are all to be expected. So, please excuse me when I'm quiet and withdrawn or irritable and cranky.
14. Your advise to "take one day at a time" is excellent advice. However, a day is too much and too fast for me right now. I wish you could understand that I'm doing good to handle an hour at a time.
15. Please excuse me if I seem rude, certainly it is not my intent. Sometimes the world around me goes too fast and I need to get off. When I walk away, I wish you would let me find a quiet place to spend time alone.
16. I wish you understood that grief changes people. When my baby died, a big part of me died with her. I am not the same person I was before my baby died, and will never be that person again.
17. I wish very much that you could understand-understand my loss and my grief, my silence and my tears, my void and my pain. BUT, I pray that you will never understand.

Sweet child whom we never really got to know,
It's hard for us to let you go.
We waited and we wanted you.
We had so many dreams for you.

We think of smiles we'll never see.
We think of events that will never be.
There will be no first steps and no first teeth.
There is only a void and our own grief.

We planned to take you to places far and near.
We yearned to keep you safe and free from fear.
We hoped to show you much of your new world.
We wanted to teach you as your life unfurled.

It's hard to understand why you, our baby, died.
We feel so numb right now, many tears we've cried.
We have so many questions and no answers seem to come.
We tried so hard to save you; nothing could be done.

God, we stand before you broken-hearted and ask you to heal these lives that must be parted from this little one we can no longer hold, who will always be a part of us, even when we're old.

God, take this child in your loving arms.
No more can she suffer any harm.
Bless her always and bless us too.
Be with us and help us to make it through.

When God calls little children to dwell with him above,
We mortals sometime question
the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child
Who does so much to make our world, seem wonderful and mild
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to his fold,
So He picks a rosebud,
before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them,
and so He takes but few

To make the land of Heaven more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try,
The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Goodbye."
So when a little child departs,
we who are left behind
Must realize God loves children,
Angels are hard to find.

As I pursue the aisles, of the local store, I see things more differently, than I ever have before. "Mommy's Little Angel", the embroidered bibs do read. But, Mommy's's angel is in Heaven, and bibs she does not need. She does not need a bottle, an outfit or a toy. Of buying those things for her, we shall never know the joy. There are tiny jars of baby food, that she will never eat, And shiny little black shoes , that will never touch her feet. As the bikes and trikes taunt me, from high up on the rack, Tears will break free from my eyes, if I dare look back. I run off to the restroom, to blow my nose and cry. I wipe my eyes, swallow hard, and let out a sigh. I must go face the paper, college and wide rule, That my little angel, will never use in school. I hurry past the greeting cards, that the people chose with care, And I am reminded, of the holidays we shall not share. In the checkout line I bow my head, and heavy is my heart, For the family right in front of me, has a newborn in their cart. Shopping in the local store, used to be mundane. Now every aisle's full of items, which remind me of my pain. So, quick as I can, I give the cashier, the money from my purse, And hurry away from those who don't know my pain, in this foreignly happy universe.

If i could have a lifetime wish a dream that would come true
I'd pray to God with all my heart for yesterday and you
A thousand words can't bring you back
I know because I've tried
And neither would a million tears
I know because I've cried
You left behind a broken heart and happy memories too

I never wanted memories
I only wanted you.

My Mom is a Survivor
My mom is a survivor,
or so I've heard it said.
But I can hear her crying
when all others are in bed.
I watch her lay awake at night.
and go to hold her hand.
She doesn't know I'm with her to help her understand.
But like the sands upon a beach that never wash away...

I watch over my surviving mom who thinks of me each day.
She wears a smile for others,
a smile of disguise.
But through Heaven's open door,
I see tears flowing from her eyes.
My mom tries to cope with my death,
to keep my memory alive.
But anyone who knows her knows it's her way to survive.
As I watch over my surviving mom through Heaven's open door...
I try to tell her that
Angel protect me forevermore.
I know that doesn't help her,
or ease the burdens she bears.
So if you get a chance, call to her
And show her that you care.
For no matter what she feels,
my surviving mom has a broken heart that time won't ever heal.

PLEASE, don't ask me if I'm over it yet.

I'll never be over it.

PLEASE, don't tell me she's in a better place.

She isn't here with me.

PLEASE, don't say at least she isn't suffering.

I haven't come to terms with why she had to suffer at all.

*PLEASE, don't tell me you know how I feel,
unless you have lost a child.*

PLEASE, don't ask me if I feel better.

Bereavement isn't a condition that clears up.

PLEASE, don't tell me at least you had her for a little while.

When would you choose for your child to die?

PLEASE, don't tell me God never gives us more than we can bear.

PLEASE, just say you're sorry.

PLEASE, just say you remember my child, if you do.

PLEASE, just let me talk about my child.

PLEASE, mention my child's name.

PLEASE, just let me cry.

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant.

Condolences

from the deepest of our hearts...

I Believe in Angels

My thoughts and prayers are with all who love and miss sweet little Ava. Your precious Angel is certinally adorable, she captured my heart instantly. You have created a beautiful tribute to honor your little Princess's memory. I wish there where something I could say to ease your heartache, I only pray that you find some comfort knowing that others care ~ Edwina Mitchell

"Happy Eight Months" Princess

September 4, 2008

Hello Sweet Princess,

Tomorrow you'll be Eight Months old in heaven! And I could just imagine you and Little Eli trying to stand up and crawling everywhere. How I wish for your mommy and me to be holding you sweet angels. But, I know one day we will meet again and we are going to give you both all that love that is in our hearts. I know your mommy feels you when you come around her and give her your sweet love. Because I feel Eli near me and it just breaks my heart because I cannot see him or hold him. So make sure when you come around your sweet mommy, Give her lots of love and bless her with your Sweet Kisses. She needs those all the time. You have become someone very special in my life Sweet Ava and your mommy too! Have a lot of fun playing baby girl. Have lots of Ice cream and cake and know that we'll be thinking of you on your Eight Month Birthday baby.

Jamie,

How I wish things would have turned out different for us. But God had other plans for our babies. And, now they wait for us in heaven. It breaks my heart when I count the months without Eli. I thought I would be able to move on by now. But it is not true. when People tell me that time heals everything. I still feel like if it was yesterday that I lost Eli. I am trying to move but I am stuck. I will light a candle in my house for Sweet Ava tomorrow. I hope you are doing well. I don't go to the support group like I use to because I am really busy all day long. But I always pray for our babies. God Bless You Jamie. I'll always be here for you whenever you need me.

Missing You

August 27, 2008

Hi Sweet Baby,

I can't help but sit here and think about how big you would be getting! Almost 8 months, WOW! I bet you would be smiling, starting to eat baby food and maybe even crawling! We still can't get over this, just can't even believe it. Darrius and Arianna started school yesterday, I bet you would of loved to see you big brother getting off the school bus! They miss you so much, I wish I could give you back to them. Everyone says they can't believe how much they understand, and how real you were to them. Of course you were real to them, they waited 8 long months for you to come too! It is weird how time flies, but in reality the last 8 monts have been nothing but a blurr. I wish time stopped moving on with out you!!! I guess some things we just can't change. I look forward to the day I get to hold you in my arms, it won't bet here soon enough. I know you are with your great grandma's and they are taking good care of you!!! I love you Angel!!!

Comforting Words

July 31, 2008

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of the parents of baby Ava. I can not imagine what it feels like to lose a child but it has to be a pain that is undescibable. Losing our loved ones saddens us and that only shows that death is unnatural and it was never meant to be a part of life.

Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that both of you are going through.

He promises that the day is soon to come in which he will wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5)

He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29)

Until his words are fulfilled may each of you continue to take comfort in him.

If i ever had a wish or a dream it would be to bring your Ava home to you where she belongs! Please know i still feel your pain and will forever!

I just don't think i would or could be as strong as you have been,i know you try for us all,but i also know you keep so much inside,i wish you would let me help you in some way,but how can i ever take that pain away from you! Just know if i could i would give anything,anything for you and Victor to have your baby back!!!!

I love you so much!!!! I hope all the condolences you get from all these nice mothers and grandmothers helps you with your pain!

I try not to blame god but it is so hard.

I will always be here for you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

My Beautiful Angel

May 8, 2008

Hello Beautiful,

If there was anything in this world that I could have, it would be to have you back. I don't know why you were chosen to leave before your time, and never will. But I guess it really was your time, and that is why God took you back. I am sure he knew that you really were just too beautiful for this ugly world. I thank you for bringing me 36 weeks of joy, even through all the morning sickness! When Mommy found out she was going to have a baby I told my self this was the last one so enjoy every moment of it, and I did! Not knowing that I would loose you before I even got to meet you. I am so glad that I enjoyed everyday with you, and didn't take a second for granted. Even though I was sooo sick for the first 3 1/2 months, I wouldn't change a thing. I loved you every moment, and am grateful for every kick, movement you had. You wre suppose to be our missing link, you were suppose to be the beging of "our new life". Well, a new life we got, just not the one we wanted. So many people loved you, even before you were here. We have had more support then we could ever imagined, through this terrible situation. We are so thankful to have our family and friends to get us through this terrible time of loosing you. If support were enough to bring you back, you would be here baby girl. Your brother and sister were BEYOND extatic to have a baby brother or sister, for they wanted one since they were old enough to talk. They day I told them you were gone, was the worst day of my life. So please watch over Darrius Arianna and Nadia, and keep them safe. If there is any good to come out of loosing you, it is that we are so much closer. Your whole family was waiting for your arrival baby girl, and your whole family is still mouring you. So until we meet again, watch over us and keep us safe and together for we need each other! I promise to not let your memory fade, you will always be on our minds and in our hearts! Love you with all my heart!!! xoxoxo

My heart goes out to you and your family!! An I am truely sorry and give my deepest condolences, but I know that know matter what anyone says it does not make the pain go away! Losing my own daughter at only four months, i know exactly how you all must feel!! And it sucks!!!! Time will not heal an make it all go away but i think it only makes the pain a little easier as time goes on. I know there are so many questions unanswered and your life may not be the same until you are reuntied with your beautiful Ava. But just know that your precious angel and all your family will be in my hearts and prayers!

We still don't why! I don't know how such a precious angel could be taken from you. Please know i love and miss Ava also. But the pain you two share, only you know, i am very thankful you still have each other. I hope in some way this brings you closer. Please know i think of you and Ava everyday and i do feel the pain of losing Ava also. And i hope she is in your dreams as she is in your hearts forever.

So many people send you love and sympathy i hope in some way it helps you heal.

My deepest sympathy to you and your family. A child touches our lives from the minute they start growing inside their Mommy. Everybody wants to rub the baby through the belly and instantly the loves bonds.

My heart goes out to you, after carrying Ava for nine months and than delivering her, you didn't get to spend too much time with her....just enough to break your heart for the rest of your days.

Jesus promised us enternal life together and one day Ava will be back with all her family...FOREVER AND EVER! At least she has a wonderful family waiting to be with her again.

Hold on to her memories and ask Jesus for strength, you will receive it. I will pray to Angie that she helps watch over your darling daughter until you are back with her. Angie loved children and her son is here without her....We are all losers when it ocmes to death...but we have each other and our precious memories that we can keep as a treasure.

Sending you and Ava's Nana hugs, and I'm sure Ava is wrapping her tiny Angel Wings around all of you and watching over you.

I am so sorry for your loss. As days go by I realize that trying to understand why is not the question we should be asking about our little babies but when will we see them again. That is the hope we all hold on to that when our time comes to meet our Creator, our little ones will rejoicely greet us with hugs and kisses.

I was reminded this past Sunday during a baby dedication that our children although a gift to us are also a loan to us from God for He knew them even before they were put in our womb. I thank God for Ava and all the little children who came and left this world so briefly. May God give you peace.

Our Sweet Ava,

We don't understand why,we wish we did.Maybe it would help us with our pain of losing you. Just know we all loved you even before we saw you,while you were growing in your mommies belly. We loved you from the start.

I hope God is taking care of you,for we wanted to do that for your whole lifetime.

But God had other plans for you,little did we know.

Just know your mommy and daddy and nana will miss and love you forever,till we see you again have fun with the other precious babies God has with him.

We will miss you so much it hurts.

Love your Nana. I can't wait to see you again in heaven!

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Hey Princess, Stay close to your mommy and let her know you are always there, loving her and watching over her.

Baby Eli's Mommy

Hello Princess, Stopping by to wish you a beautiful day in heaven. Always stop by and bless your mommy with your sweet angel love.

Mommy

Your Mommy

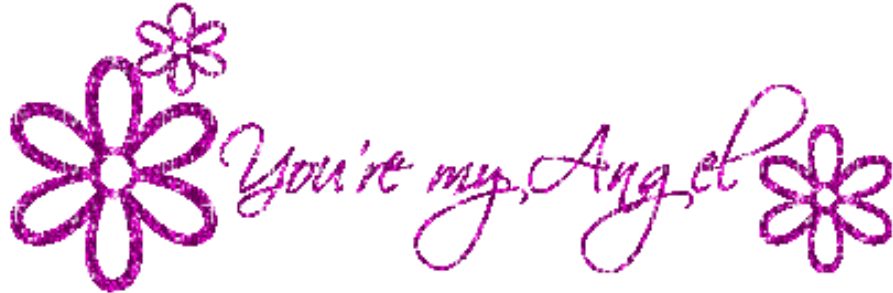

Ava Lynn,

Last year at this time your Mommy was so happy. Oh how in just one year haw my life been torn apart. I was 7 months prego and we were getting ready to move into our new house! Little did I know, how everything would turn out. All the worrying I did, were we gonna be moved before you came? Would we have all the money we needed? Where would we be for Christmas? It was for nothing. Little did I know the one thng I was not worried about was about to be torn from me forever. I would give up everything I foug so hard to get if I could just have my baby back! You were so perfect, I just don't understand. Every day is a struggle, and everyday I wish for my baby back. I try so hard, but I hate that this dreaded time of year is approaching so fast. Your First Thanksgiving, Your First Christmas, Your birthday. Baby girl, I need you.

Mommy

My baby Girl, I wish that you were here with me and not my angel in heaven. But I guess, there is nothing that will ever change that. Its hard, as the Holidays get close. You were suppose to be here, almost a year old for your first Thanksgiving, and Christmas. I wonder would you look like me or your Daddy? Would you have beautiful curly hair like your brother and sister did? Would you be walking? I bet you would just adore your brother and sister! And I bet you would be sooo spoiled!!!! I am sorry baby, that I am selfish and wish you were here. I know you are in a much better place, I just can't help it. I miss you, and words cannot express how it is to live on with out you. I can't wait to hold you in my arms again!!!

words cannot express how much I love you

A Miss Ya!

Mommy

Baby Girl, On this special day we remember and light a candle for you. I wish it could bring you back. My heart is forever broken and my life, will never be the same. Your brother and sister miss you so much, I wish I could give you back to them. I will celebrate the 36 short weeks I had with you, tonight and always!!!

Mommy

Ava,

8 months ago today our whole world as we knew it shattered. Our baby girl, was gone. Every day we miss you and every day we struggle to make it through another day with out you. We will never know why we have to live the rest of our lives with out you. Baby girl, you have made me a stronger person, and I thank you for that. Nothing we will ever go through will ever compare to the pain of loosing you. For that reason, we can make it through anything now. Ava Lynn just know, that you will live on with us forever and we will never forget you. For 36 weeks you were ours, then God took you back. My precious baby girl, I would give the world to see you just once more!!!!

Baby Girl

Mommy and Daddy

Go ahead and mention my child,
The one that died you know.
Don't worry about hurting me further.
The depth of my pain doesn't show.

Don't worry about making me cry

I'm already crying inside.
Help me to heal by releasing
The tears that I try to hide.

I'm hurt when you just keep silent,
Pretending she didn't exist.
I'd rather you mention my child,
Knowing that she has been missed.

You ask me how I am doing.
I say "pretty good" or "fine".
But healing is something ongoing
I feel it will take a lifetime.

.....Author unknown.....

Mommy and Daddy

My Little Angel

I felt your presence there inside of me,
nestled soft and warm;
Sweet scent of baby's breath,
precious words left unadorned.

I saw your tiny heartbeat,
then I knew that you were fine;
A perfect baby we created,
one that would be mine.

Then that tragic day it came there was nothing I could do,
Only wait and hope for the precious life of you.

Yes in the beginning
your daddy was afraid;
Only he would love you unconditional and never run away.

He loved you more this I do know,
as he cried for you that day,
When the doctor said that you were gone,
daddy wanted you to stay.

He would have held you close to him,
and see your perfect form,
A gift of daddy's love,
would have kept you safe and warm.

Only now you are an angel over me beautiful and bare,
My heart would hurt if you cried for me and mommy was not there.

Still we are together in my heart and memories,
You are still a part of my memory.

Rest gentle now 'sweet baby' there is no pain
you are never alone,
I know you are with the guiding angels in you peaceful home.

I will come with you someday
only now is not my time,
Then we will be together again
again you will be mine.

Love You Angel xoxo

Precious Little One

I`m just a precious little one who didn`t make it there.
I went straight to be with Jesus,

but I`m waiting for you here.
Many dwelling here where I live, waited years to enter in.
Struggled through a world of sorrow,
a world marred with pain and sin.
Thank you for the life you gave me,
it was brief but don`t complain.
I have all Heaven`s Glory, suffered none of earth`s great pain.
Thank you for the name you gave me.
I`d have loved to bring it fame.
But if I`d lingered in earth`s shadows,
I would have suffered just the same.
So sweet family-don`t you sorrow.
Wipe those tears and chase the gloom.
I went straight to Jesus` arms from my loving Mother`s womb.

Baby Ava

Don't let them say I wasn't born,
That something stopped my heart
I felt each tender squeeze you gave,
I've loved you from the start.

Although my body you can't hold
It doesn't mean I'm gone
This world was worthy, not of me
God chose that I move on.

I know the pain that drowns your soul,

What you are forced to face
You have my word, I'll fill your arms,
Someday we will embrace.

You'll hear that it was meant to be,
God doesn't make mistakes
But that won't soften your worst blow,
Or make your heart not ache.

I'm watching over all you do,
Another child you'll bear
Believe me when I say to you,
That I am always there.

There will come a time, I promise you,
When you will hold my hand,
Stroke my face and kiss my lips
And then you'll understand.

Although I've never breathed your air,
Or gazed into your eyes
That doesn't mean I never was,
An Angel never dies.

author unknown.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white tone, making them stand out against the darker background.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

January 1, 2008

There is a special Angel in Heaven that is a part of me.
It is not where I wanted her but where God wanted her to be.

She was here but just a moment like a night time shooting star.
And though she is in Heaven
she isn't very far.

She touched the heart of many like only an Angel can do.
I would've held her every minute
if the end I only knew.

So I send this special message to the Heavens up above.
Please take care of my Angel and send her all my love

January 1, 2008

 They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way I feel,
For no-one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No-one knows how many times,

We have broken down and cried,
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to be without

January 1, 2008

Oh how I wish there was something to fill in this spot. Our baby was taken from us too early. Stillborn at 36 weeks. We will never get to know her, here her cries, or even see her beautiful eyes. We will never get to see her first day of school, or graduation. I do know, that our baby is an angel in heaven watching down over us. I do BELIEVE that she knows how much we love her.

January 1, 2008

To Our Baby Sister, We Love You !!

Love Darrius, and Arianna

How do you love a person
Who never got to be,
Or try again to see a face
You never got to see?

How do you mourn the death of one
Who never got to live,
When there's nothing to feel good about

And nothing to forgive?

I love you, little sister.
You're a person of the wind,
Free to be the memory
Of all that might have been.

I love you, little sister,
My companion of the night,
Wandering through my lonely hours,
Beautiful and bright.

What does it mean to die before
You ever can be born,
To live the lovely night of life
And never see the dawn?

Ah! My little sister,
You lived like anyone!
Life's a burst of joy and pain,
And then, like yours, it's done.

I love you, little sister,
Just as if you'd lived for years.
No more, no less, I think of you,
The angel of my tears.
